Old Somerley is located:

- 5 mins from Ringwood
- 15 mins from Bournemouth
- 20 mins from Salisbury
- 25 mins from Southampton
- 1.5 hrs from London

The rustic Garden House provides a perfect location for up to 80 delegates for a theatre-style conference and up to 60 for a seated lunch or dinner, with delicious food prepared by Lord Normanton's Head Chef. In the summer months, enjoy a barbeque or cold buffet served alfresco.

Why not combine a half-day conference with an afternoon of corporate events? The listed 2-acre Walled Garden, once the preserve of Victorian gardeners, affords an ideal location for 'fun' activities, including laser clay shooting, falconry, archery and even an "It's a Knockout" competition for larger numbers of guests. Alternatively, for the fit and healthy, there is a cycling Treasure Hunt on the Estate, motorised activities in the Park, or the challenge of the testing eight mile 4 x 4 course. A whole range of different activities can be organised, all supervised by qualified instructors.

Old Somerley also incorporates a dedicated training area for team building, with permanent structures laid out around the lake, park and woodlands. The mentally-challenging activities are fun, while addressing issues such as communication, motivation, leadership, and problem solving. The magnificent rolling parkland supports a plethora of wildlife, spectacular specimen trees, water meadows and the River Avon wending its final journey to the sea. This is a truly impressive venue for team-building, seminars, or just 'fun' multi-activity days and can be hired for a day, half a day or just for a private lunch or dinner.

Accommodation can be organised in a variety of local hotels nestling on the edge of the New Forest, just minutes from Old Somerley.
